

SARAH MOKOENA

Durban, KZN | sarah.mokoena@email.com | 082 555 1234 | SACE Registered: 12345678

Professional Profile

A dedicated and top-performing Life Sciences educator with over 6 years of experience teaching Grade 10 to 12 learners. Adept at navigating the CAPS curriculum and consistently achieving high academic outcomes (98% matric pass rate). Experienced in conducting scientific investigations and leveraging educational technology.

Education & Qualifications

Bachelor of Education (BEd) - Life Sciences and Natural Sciences

University of KwaZulu-Natal (UKZN) | 2013 - 2016

Teaching Experience

Life Sciences Teacher (Grade 10-12)

Westville Girls' High School | Jan 2018 - Present

- Deliver high-quality Life Sciences instruction aligned with the CAPS curriculum for senior phase and matric learners.
- Design and facilitate engaging laboratory practicals, fieldwork, and virtual lab sessions to enhance practical science understanding.
- Implement inquiry-based learning techniques to foster critical thinking and student engagement in human biology and genetics.
- Mentor student teachers and lead collaborative educational projects within the science department.
- Utilize MS Excel for learner assessment tracking, and incorporate digital learning tools for interactive lessons.

Key Skills

- Subject Knowledge: Biology, Environmental Science, Cell Biology, Genetics.
- Pedagogy: Inquiry-based learning, CAPS assessment, Lesson planning, teamwork.